WINE HOSTS BIO

Jean-Noel Fourmeaux
Proprietor, VGS Chateau Potelle

Sent to the Napa Valley by the French government "to spy" for six months, Jean-Noel Fourmeaux reported back home "Looks good, I stay". This son of Bordeaux created VGS Chateau Potelle 39 years ago on Mount Veeder in Napa Valley. Originally seduced by the exuberance and generosity of the Napa Valley fruit, Jean-Noel makes wines that have dimension, subtlety and definitive character. A true French-American blend, he travels the world sharing the culture of wine with his customers and friends, from Bordeaux where he is from, to South Africa, Europe, and beyond.

Matthew Regan
Managing Director, VGS Chateau Potelle

With 22 years experience at Chateau Potelle, Matthew has become the right hand to Jean-Noel's left. Born and raised in New England, educated at the CIA in Hyde Park, New York, seasoned at Blackberry Farm in Tennessee and maturing (at least trying) in the Napa Valley with his amazing wife Lindsay and twin daughters, Aubrey James and Madison Anne Marie. When not working at or drinking VGS, Matthew can be found in the hot tub or sleeping!

Cruise fare from $6,298 per person

OPTIONAL LAND PACKAGE
Pre-cruise 3 nights Lisbon from $900 per person
